Ile thus your hopes destroy, and for further griefe,
God giue you ioy; what, are you both pleased?
Thai. Yes, if you loue me sir.
Per. Euen as my life or blood that fosters it.
King. What are you both agreed?
Amb. Yes if it please your maiesty.
King It pleaseth me so well, that I will see you wed,
And then with what haste you can, get you to bed.

Exeunt.

Enter Gower,

Now sleepe yslaked hath the rout,
No din but snores about the house.
Made louder by the o're-fe beast,
Of his most pompous marriage feast:
The Cat with eyne of Burning coale,
Now couches from the Mouses hole;
And Cricket sing at the ouens mouth,
Are the blither for their drouth:
Hymen hath brought the Bride to bed,
Whereby the losse of mayden-head,
A babe is moulded, by attent,
And time that is so briefly spent,
With your fine fancies quaintly each,
What's dumbe in shew, Ile plaine with speech.

Dumbe Shew.

Enter Pericles & Simonides at on doore with attendants, a Messenger meetes them, knerles, & giues Pericles a letter, Pericles shewes it Simonides, the Lords kneele to him; then enter Thaisa with child, with Lychorida a Nurse, the King shewes her the letter she reioyces: she and Pericles take leaue of her father, and depart.
